MAJOR RECORDS MAINTAINED BY THE PERSONNEL AND TRAINING SECTION WE

- 25X1A
1. Personnel Files - Individual personnel file folders, arranged alphabetically (pseudo) on each individual occupying a WE slot. Divided file folders, of the type used in Personnel Office, contain documents divided into four groups- Personnel Actions, Travel, Fiscal matters and General.
  2. Position Inventory Record - 5x8 cards showing dates of DOB, Security clearance, EOB, Date of Arrival, Due Return, personnel actions, (grade, salary and date) and career Designation. Standard form 7D, Position Identification Strip showing Position Title, Slot number, Series, and grade is used as an overlay. This position inventory card is unique in the DD/P Divisions and was designed to fit the desires of the WE Personnel & Training Section. As a rule the OF-4b is used for purposes of Position Inventory Records, though SF-Form 7 is used in one division.
  3. Cable Log - Pink copies of all outgoing cables as drafted. No posting-type log is maintained.
  4. Dispatch Log - Pink copies of all outgoing dispatches, filed chronologically by Station No. posting-type log is maintained.
  5. Personnel Action Chrono - pink copies of all Personnel actions filed chronologically.
  6. PER Control - 6"x9" looseleaf binder listing, as received by name, date sent to Branch, room number, date due back and date sent to Personnel Office.
  7. Periodic Pay Increase Memo - Copies of individual memoranda notifying supervisors of pending periodic pay increase, requesting approval (by initials) of conduct and service has been satisfactory.
  8. Pseudo File - a four part system consisting of
    - a. A set of blue cards, 3"x5", filed alphabetically by true name with pseudo number.
    - b. A looseleaf book listing pseudos numerically.
    - c. A set of salmon cards, 3"x5", filed alphabetically by pseudonym with pseudo number.

FUNCTIONAL STATEMENT OF THE

WE DIVISION (as described by Chief, Personnel Section/Admin/WE)

1. Plan and program personnel and training activities for WE Division personnel in accordance with CIA and DD/P policies. This will include establishment of a close working relationship with all six area operational Branches, three Staff Branches, and Chief's office with regard to their specific needs in terms of future programs, as well as current projects.
2. Recommend to superior the establishment of policies and procedures to improve utilization of personnel.
3. Furnish to Branch Chiefs and case officers guidance, based on knowledge of Division personnel assets, operational needs, and various facilities of the Agency, on recruitment, clearance, assessment, psychiatric evaluation, utilization, development, rotation, promotion, etc. of Division personnel.
4. Prepare personnel reports to DD/P Admin. and to the Personnel Office. Prepare and revise Division T/O's, including project T/O's.
5. Develop Divisional orientation program, instructing subordinates in the techniques of presentation to new employees.
6. In conjunction with the Office of Training and the appropriate senior staffs, develop and implement training programs for staff and indigenous personnel. This activity requires a knowledge of Division needs and training facilities.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief of Administration, ID/P

25X1A

REFERENCE : Survey Report of the [REDACTED] Administration

1. The referenced report has been reviewed with members of the organization and management survey team and detailed discussions held with members of the [REDACTED]

2. The following comments regarding the recommendations in paragraph 5 are listed below for your consideration along with other comments which relate to other parts of the report:

3 a.

It is felt that the function of operational security, as it affects personnel problems, should be added to Tab F. This form of security has a direct bearing on all headquarters and field personnel relating to their day to day operations. Guidance for employees on outside contacts which might involve the Agency is a necessary function. Examples of the problems encountered are: cover travel orders, applications for life insurance, credit references and schooling. Considerable time has been spent by the personnel and training section on such matters, and based on past experience, they will continue to play an important part in the daily work load of WE/PT.

3 b.

The function of personnel placement which the personnel staff performs, based on an overall knowledge and understanding of the Division's personnel needs in headquarters and the field. This is, of course, performed in conjunction with the personnel placement representative and the Career Service Boards. Based on informal instructions received from the ID/P Personnel Officer and the Career Service Boards, the placement function will continue to be important in the reassignment and replacement of overseas personnel. It should be a responsibility of the division personnel office to advise branch chiefs on the placement and utilization of personnel both at headquarters and in the field. Such advice is based on a knowledge of division personnel needs and assets.

3 b. - 3 c.

Your report recommends that the proposed T/O for the performance of personnel and training functions be limited to no more than six slots. However, it should be noted that the entire function and responsibility for security and cover requires the services of one full-time employee. As of this time, it is felt that the personnel and training section is the proper place for this responsibility to be assigned. Paragraph 3-a of reference agrees that official and non-official liaison with ICB and Cover Division can be performed in WE/PT. After full consideration of the problem, we are unable to suggest a better place to assign the cover and security functions. Based on a year's experience, it is our opinion that the performance of these duties by other personnel staff members is inadvisable.

5 d.

We regard it as essential that our personnel officers have ready access to personnel folders which contain complete and up-to-date information. Therefore, we feel that it is necessary to maintain division folders on our personnel. However, every effort is being made to keep these files to a minimum in accordance with current regulations and to send copies of pertinent material to the Central Personnel Files.

2 c.

While it is realized that the compilation of statistics concerning work load is a necessary part of a survey report, they should not be a prime criteria for deciding on the importance or necessity of the job being done. WE/PT spends a large proportion of its time on problems, which because of their unusual features peculiar to the Agency, are not solved by rule-of-thumb methods, but require lengthy investigations and careful consideration of the factors involved. In this connection, we should like to point out

3 b.

The PT Section is responsible for all appointments, reassignments, recalls, etc. for field personnel, based on the Division rotation program, station and area desk recommendations. Therefore, as PT possesses all the information concerning cover, personnel leave requirements, household effects and dependents, it is felt that this mass of detail could be typed directly by PT in a PCS travel order and routed to Budget and Fiscal for obligation of funds (a close relationship is maintained between WE/PT and WE/BF). Budget and Fiscal does not possess any of the details which are necessary for a PCS, but they are available to the PT Section.

3 e.

SI/AF handles only finance matters of contract agents, and it is the opinion of this Branch that these cannot be classified as personnel matters in the true sense. Strictly personnel matters are handled by case officers. Therefore, it is felt that this point of discussion was misinterpreted at the time of the survey.

3 e.

The workload is distributed between SI and AF as both use the same set of files.
